

CCIT Announcement

“Thai people do not tolerate corruption (Zero Tolerance)”

At present, the government recognizes the importance of a system of moral assessment and transparency in the operation of government agencies. On January 5, 2016, the government approved all government agencies to participate in the evaluation of the virtues and transparency. Linked to the 20-years national's strategy (2017-2036) with the international standards; administrators, civil officials, employees and all staffs of the Central Chest Institute of Thailand (CCIT) have a common intention to provide the organization with the highest standards of ethical conduct. "Transparency Central Chest Institute of Thailand", focusing on preventing and combating corruption as well as strengthening ethics within the organization, so to achieve that goal the Central Chest Institute of Thailand is pleased to announce the followings:

1. Honestly loyal to the monarch in the Chakri Dynasty.
2. To be a good man, to behave in a professional manner with honesty and integrity.
3. Hold yourself with honor and dignity.
4. Be courageous to Stand for what is right and fight against any cheating to the country.
5. Do not tolerate corruption or take a lucid position on the misery of the people.
6. Will behave in accordance with the footsteps and merit of the great king.
7. Will follow the Philosophy of Sufficient Economy with patience to pursue the Royal wish of standing beside people for the stability and prosperity of the Kingdom of Thailand.

The announcement is common knowledge.

Announced on April 26th, 2018

Vibhan Sungkahapong, M.D.

Director

Central Chest Institute of Thailand